At its meeting held October 28, 2003, the Board took the following action:

19

Supervisor Molina made the following statement:

“During the 2003/2004 season, the Los Angeles Philharmonic will offer Education Programs that will not only help music teachers enrich their offerings, but assist classroom teachers in integrating music into the curriculum. Extensive lesson plans, written in alignment with the State of California content area standards, are given to all participating teachers. The professional development programs for educators include: Music for Educators; Music for Elementary Educators; Common Grounds/Common Language-Professional Development for Educators [a collaborative project with Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles Opera, Los Angeles Master Chorale and Cal Arts Community Partnership (CAP) program]; and Symphonies for Schools.”

Robert Myers addressed the Board.

After discussion, on motion of Supervisor Molina, seconded by Supervisor Antonovich, unanimously carried, the Board reduced parking fees to $4.00, excluding the cost of liability insurance, at the Walt Disney Concert Hall garage for educators attending the following workshops:

Music for Elementary Educators:	November 7, 14, and 22, 2003;
Music for Educators:	January 21, February 18, and March 6, 2004
CommonGround/Common Language:	January 31 and February 7, 2004; and
Symphonies for Schools:	February 28 and March 13, 2004
